Run A Background Check

GoodHire.

In order to comply with the federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA) and privacy laws, GoodHire must confirm that you are ordering reports on behalf of a valid business for employment purposes.

To verify your business, you will need to provide GoodHire with basic information about your company and your Employer Identification Number (EIN), if available. In some cases, you may be asked to provide additional information, such as a copy of a business license or a complete W-9 form.

If you need those forms, you can grab them here.

This process typically takes just a couple hours and only needs to be completed once to ensure that your hiring practices remain safe and legal. Don't worry - you'll just need to do this once.
